My dear Papa -

Having returned from my living I was very sorry to find you had been so kind as to write & that I was not that I had the smallest idea that you would, I should certainly not have consented, but I remain at home on purpose, but as you did not say anything about it yesterday, it seems planned, my excuse I thought you will not be displeas'd with, but was entirely accidental.
This is the first day I have ventured to be down stairs for advice, & this I took some time with me going up & lying down & so do not know precisely what was or was not to I know but it was in the paper

Believe me

My dear Madam

Ever your truly

Wm Pitt
