Windsor Jan 7th 1796.

My Dear Son, I am highly pleas'd with Your account of the Prince of Wales being so lately delivered this morning of a Daughter, and indeed I always wish'd it should be of that Sex, You are with Young and tend will have many Children, and this New coming will equally call for the protection of its Parents and consequently be a bond of additional Union.
I am happy to find both seem as well as at this early period can be expected. The Queen will believe tomorrow visit her Grand Daughter but has promis'd me on no account to see the Prince whose future health may depend on being now kept as quiet as possible, I shall only add that I ever remain

My Dear Son
Your most affectionate
Father
George
