At least my dear Aunt I send you the Dr of Burleigh's house civil thing to that; you will now make such arrangements as you please, & settle everything your way. I am extremely obliged to you for your kind Letter & for the good accounts of the child who I trust will continue as well as possible. I have had a very Letter from Eliza, with most delightful accounts of the recovery which sets my mind quite at ease.

 For I can not but confess to you that I was very uneasy about her.
 Adieu my dear ~~friend~~ ^{friend} I may venture to write occasionally, especially if there is any thing new; I see the Duke of Gloucester has been unwilling to return extremely sorry.

Brighton. Yours most respectfully
