I am but just returned home time enough to save the Post & to return my dear Countess my thanks for her Letter.
Pray do as you like & as you find it most unconvenient about Lady Charlotte, I leave it entirely to your own discretion. As to Miss Steyman, I will write fully to you in a day or two, at present as the Post is waiting for my Letter, I can only add God bless

You,
Brighton
Sept. 26th.

Most sincerely Yours
