My dear Aunt,

Your kind & affectionate Letter I received this morning & shall say little or nothing upon the contents of it, but in a manner save the whole subject till we meet, which I hope will be on Tuesday at three o'clock, as I mean to be at Carlton House at that hour. I approve much of your plan for the Child's Apartment, & shall give the necessary orders accordingly on my arrival in Jan. You are now I believe perfectly conversant of the various trials & provocations I have, & hardly do meet with from a certain quarter.

Brighton;
Oct. 23^d.
1757

Yours most affectionately
George B.
