I cannot help scribbling a few lines to my dear Aunt, to enquire after my dear child do by the side now & then let me have a line to let me know how every thing is going on. I have no news to tell you from hence except that I am thank God very well in point of health & shall be very happy to hear that my dear little Charlotte is so too. I have been writing a very long letter to the Duchess of Wirtemberg in which as I have been talking a great deal about you, you may suppose I have asked you much, ask her when you write if ever I mention you or speak of you to Her in my Letters. Pray is Elgin going to Ramegate, Margate, Ramotham, or any place upon this coast, & if he is, does ^{he} intend me a line as he promised me he would when I last ^{was} present in case he does, pray let me know about when I may expect Him, as I have some thoughts in the course of a few days of making a visit to the Country to Northey to see dear Emily & so I think it will make her happy; I hope Elgin continues daily improving. God bless you my dear friend & believe me

6550

your most affectionate

Christian.
