

HRH to Dow. Lady Elgin

49224-5

My dearest Aunt,

You may easily conceive I should not have been two days in Town without having promised you & your dear little charge up to Town. But the real truth is that I was obliged to be away the day before yesterday, that

HRH to Dow. Lady Elgin

I know I should not have a single moment to myself the whole, & started by when I got up in the morning, the weather was so fresh that I could not bear to go for the poor child up at the risk of her catching her death from the damp cold.
I go again into the country that is to say to Welling

49225

Common, therefore must expect of you to bring the dear little girl to Scotland Home as soon after nine in the morning as may be convenient to you. Ten thousand thanks for your kind letter & advice & I am I assure it is not left upon the pretence heart, of your sincerely affectionate
C. B.

Carlton House
18th Decr
1758

The Prince of Wales

to

Lady Elgin

17th Oct. 1790.

17 October 1790

Former