

HRH to Dow. Lady Elgin

49227-8

I have received yours this last kind Address my dearest Lady for which I return you many thanks; I am most exceedingly happy at the dear little girl <sup>being well again</sup> (though her beauty is temporarily destroyed. Come to Town whenever you please, I should think now the time the better moment of the Fops, which I suppose are not inconsiderable in the neighbourhood of Blackheath at the present moment, as the weather is so unseasonable damp every where. As to your arrangements about the Servants &c; I leave the whole of that, to your own good judgement & sense of propriety. I am coming to Blackheath the whole of this morning but was prevented by the bad weather. If the child should not be able to be in Town the day after tomorrow, I should trust that you would come, as I have some things I wish to say to you. But if Charlotte can come bringing to breakfast. Adieu my dearest I must believe me,

most affectionately,

Your sincere friend,
Catherine Anne

The whole of this morning has been prevented by the bad weather. If the ship is not able to be in Town the day after
 come, as I have some things I wish to say to you. But if Charlotte can come perhaps
