My dear Auntess,

I have the King's commands for the dear child to be at St. James's between the half past twelve and one o'clock tomorrow. Letters were received from the Duke of Wirtemberg at four this evening. The French then, had not advanced & the Lord Duke had sent two strong Regiments to reinforce the Wirtemberg Troops. I am my dear Auntess in haste,

Ever most affectionately
Yours

Carlton House.
