My dear Countess,

For reasons which I will communicate to you more at length when I have the pleasure of seeing you next, I think it best that Charlotte should return from the sea coast towards the end of the next week. I have therefore sent orders that your house at Sherburn Hill should be properly aired & ready for you from Thursday next. I am with

my dear Countess,

Southon House.

My dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that the Commissioners of the Customs and Excise have been directed to grant you a licence to import and sell in Great Britain and Ireland the quantity of spirits which you have applied for. The licence will be granted for a period of five years from the date of its issue. You will be required to pay a duty of 10s per gallon on the quantity of spirits imported. The licence will be issued to you in due season. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. G. [Signature]
