

Lord Chancellor
Nov^r. 5th. 1804.

AA

The Lord Chancellor offers his most humble Duty to your Majesty, and begs leave to inform your Majesty that, in obedience to your Majesty's Commands, he has written to His Royal Highness the Duke, & will communicate to your Majesty the Answer, with which he may be honoured.

The Lord Chancellor very humbly takes leave to mention to your Majesty, as a Governor of the Charter House, that the Chancellor's Friend, Mr Fisher, the Bishop of Exeter's Brother, is a Candidate to succed Dr Lennox for the late Master of St Hospital.
