

Ld. Chancellor
Nov. 24th 1804.

49340

The Lord Chancellor offers his very humble Duty to your Majesty, and has taken Leave to send a Commission for proroguing the Parliament on Tuesday next to receive your Majesty's Royal Sign Manual if your Majesty shall be so graciously pleased -

The Lord Chancellor in obedience to your Majesty's gracious Commands has sent to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales the Paper he had the Honour of receiving from your Majesty, and will have no Time in communicating to your Majesty such Answer as His Royal Highness may be pleased to return to The Chancellor.

24 Nov^r 1804
H. C. M.

19340

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]