

Copy
Mr. Pitt to the Prince of Wales
27th Nov. 1784

(AA)

N^o 2.

Copy 49348

Mr. Pitt respectfully begs leave to acquaint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, that the Lord Chancellor has communicated to him, His Royal Highness's commands, contained in His Note of the 24th inst. As His Royal Highness does not appear to have been fully aware, that the Paper transmitted to Him by the Lord Chancellor was a communication made directly to His Royal Highness by the King's express Commands, Mr. Pitt would at all events have felt it his duty to defer acquainting His Majesty with the commands he has received from the Prince, till His Royal Highness's attention had been called to that circumstance. But independent of this consideration, he must venture His Royal Highness's permission to state that he is very far from feeling himself completely informed by his conversation with the Earl of Moira, of the whole of His Royal Highness's Dispositions and Resolutions, especially in reference to a communication from His Majesty made subsequently to those conversations;

and

and that without a more precise and positive intimation of the sentiments which His Royal Highness wishes to be conveyed, it is impossible for Mr. Pitt to undertake to make any representation whatever to His Majesty on so delicate and important a subject.

Downing Street
Tuesday Nov. 27 17804.