Windsor Castle. Monday Evening

December 24th 1804.

My dear Lord,

I am this instant favored with your Lordship's communication inclosing a letter for The King, which I have not failed to present to His Majesty, on whose part I did not perceive that any objection would be made to your proceeding upon your intended journey to Leicestershire.
I may add that your Lordship may depend upon it that His Majesty never laid any delay at Your Lordship's Door.
I remain, my dear Lord, with high regard,

yours,

most sincerely
Edward
