

Mr Pitt
Dec 29 1760

AA

(His Endorment)

49404

In conformity to your Majesty's command yesterday, Mr Pitt has the honor to transmit the Copies of the Paper shewn to your Majesty.
If your Majesty should continue to approve of the draft of the Paper to be communicated to the Prince of Wales which makes one of these Papers, Mr Pitt humbly begs leave to submit whether your Majesty would not think fit to send it to the Lord Chancellor authorizing him to deliver or transmit it to the Prince of Wales, and to send at the same time a copy to Lord Moira, whose early knowledge of its contents might perhaps enable him to counteract any Impresario that might be attempted to be made from other Quarters
