Sir

Your Royal Highness having so graciously received my former letter, makes me venture to trouble you again, as I am anxious to tell Your Royal Highness, that when we went to Kensington Yesterday, I mentioned to the Princess of Wales, what you had said about her coming to Windsor she answered, that if your Royal Highness permitted Princess Charlotte to come to her once a week, she would not think of going to Windsor, & that she had told Lord Liverpool so, when he waited on her with Your Royal Highness's message, which she said she made Col. Taylor write down in Lord Liverpool's presence, & which she showed to a Liverpool, who said it was correct. I beged to have a copy of it which I enclose to Your Royal Highness as I received it. Thinking that it may possible, that Lord Liverpool did not write down what had passed at the meeting, & that Your Royal Highness might like to see it if I have done wrong, I hope you will have the goodness to tell me, as believe me no one is more devoted & attached

 dutiful humble
