My dear Mother

Nobody was at Kensington but the Duke of Brunswick his two sons His Squire & his lady - Lady de Clifford went out of her way to say the Pope never asked her a question or hinted to any report she might have heard concerning her leaving her situation & added some reflection if she had "I determined at once to say the report was untrue" In as long as I am the Prince's servant I feel I am bound to swear - I wish in every such case the words - God bless you

Monday night

Mary
