Sir

Yours^t H. Thurstey ~~Adm~~

Something has occurred to me, that makes me very anxious to have the honor of consulting your Royal Highness, for five minutes only, this day. If your Royal Highness permits, I will have the honor of waiting upon your father's House at any time after two, that you will grant me this indulgence. I have sent my upper servant whose name is Blackley, that your Royal Highness may send me verbal answer if it is your pleasure to do - I can not omit this opportunity of expressing my eternal gratitude to your Royal Highness for all that you so graciously & kindly arranged for me yesterday, & need not say but I rejoice it will afford me to execute your commands to your Royal Highness satisfaction.

I have the honor to remain

Your Royal Highness

Faithful & Obedt.
