Sir

Most gratefully do I thank Your Royal Highness for your very kind message, communicated to me by Her Majesty's Mr. Coen: & no words are adequate to express the degree of joy that fills my heart at the agreeable intelligence so graciously announced to Your Royal Highness the Prince of Saxe-Weimar is relieved from considerable anxiety & feels as Your Royal Highness ought to do, the great efforts Your Royal Highness has made for her comfort & leaving I will not trespass longer upon your Majesty's highnesses time than to assure you that I shall ever remain your Majesty's highnesses obliged & faithful Mantle Court

I have written to Miss Knight by the M^{rs} Jones hoping she will come as soon as it is convenient to her to do so —
