Si

The receipt of being tofore your Royal Highness the letter which I have the honor to enclose gives me great concern. I am perfectly aware that the generosity of your Royal Highness would not allow Miss Knight to become a sufferer in consequence of her disposition to obey your commands; therefore my regret only points at the obstacle your Royal Highness's views experience.

 It is almost superfluous to add that I am ready to make any further representa-tions to his Knight that may be convenient to your Royal Highness's wishes.

Perhaps, in order to satisfy His Highness' honorable delicacy, it may be well first to take some step for reconciling to the Queen His Highness' acceptance of the station proposed for her.

There will be some satisfaction to your Royal Highness in the information that Mr Whitbread has no objection.

of bringing forward any discussion respect-ing the Princeps. He accepts with every acknowledgement the permission offered for his passing at Carlton House, on his return to Bonn, the documents re-lating to the subject.

With my humble Duty, I remain,
Sir,
Your Royal Highness's
Most obliged &
Devoted Servant
The Prince Regent. Maria
