My dearest Son. I take the liberty of sending You a Copy of a letter I have wrote to Miss Knight of which Mr H. H. has the Original He will call at Carlton House, if You approve of it He is to carry it, if not He is to burn it in Your Presence. This is the Strongest proof I can give You of my Affection & will at least Shew the World that I am not the Cause of Her refusal for I know Her nerves to be always very weak & that She wants encouragement. I did indeed think it possible that She might have wrote to me after Her Note to Mr Mirra, but nothing is come & I am only sorry I did not do it Yesterday.

My Pain still continues but I am Nursing it for the Week after next. & Now God Bless You Amen.

The Queen commands me to add that she sends to you through letters open & has kept her copy of you where Sir N. Stafford will see it & take it to Mrs. G.

Yours
