Sir

Her Royal Highness Princess Charlotte has had Her 2<sup>d</sup> lesson of M<sup>rs</sup> Bidelst today, & she informs me, that she cannot be of much use to the Princess previous to the Ball, unless your Royal Highness will allow me to invite a few young Ladies to practice at some Country dances &c with Her Royal Highness. If I have your Royal Highness's permission

I will invite you or a couple for Monday Even to be at Warwick House at 1/2 past 8 & 1/2 in cap Charlotte will in consequence leave Ithensington at 8 o'clock instead of 9 I do not wish for New Royal Highness to dance till a little before 11 & do not mean to include any body in New Royal Highness commands, but your Ladies & their governesses, & not us.
 Mr Diddet is to be at Warwick House before you Monday Even. If your Royal Highness will be so gracious as to order Col. M. Norton to give your aspect, or dissent, to this proposal (which I hardly think will be of use to Sir Isaac Newton) I shall be much obliged - With thousands of thanks for all your royal regards most precious to me, I have the honour to remain

Your royal regards most grateful Man: Servant
