My dear Mother

I am this moment returned from my drive in the Park, & do not delay an instant in informing you that I met the Prince, who stopped in carriage & spoke to me for five minutes he seemed to love to see the Duke of Brunswick & this circumstance will not happen again, but as it was entirely unexpected by me I wish to give you the earliest intelligence, so I make it a point never to have any con-versations from you

I hope you will come soon to me which will give much pleasure to
My dear Mother
Ever Affly
