Before I go to bed I must write a few lines to you My Dear Father, to thank you for sending Mr. Perry to immediately to me with the affidavit however As I heard from him that you were so much shocked I shall certainly feel very desirous to hear and you know I only hope that you will if possible favor me with a few lines - to set my mind at rest on that subject - It certainly was an unexpected blow to me I wish for every reason you will give some advice has caused me much pain I have been with you my writing more, but you would not follow of a long time then I would to help without it preferring myself to you -

Believe me

Dear Mother

Your affectionate son

Charles
