My Dearest Mother

After your very kind visit yesterday, & the unexpected, & so great permission you gave me, as well as that of leaving me entirely to write what I pleased, I cannot feeling as grateful as I do, allow it to pass in silence, without offering some return, for the confidence reposed in me, & that we asked for, in case you be a copy of my letter sent, &c. I trust of you to read. It is true I have had her however accepting the opportunity afforded with gratitude & commend is fixed for my going to Blackheath

To dinner -

Rebucera

My dear Mother

Ever very affly
