My dearest Mother

I shall be very glad to be you be ever wished, that I am returned from Black North I find I want sufficiently and I shall be very glad to see you if you are there, particularly as I should like to see you very much and as I have considerably missed at the suddenness of the late event

Among some other things of the Duke's there is a miniature of you which I am to have - I am but regret that the Duke will have so many letters -

I hope your wife is not more for going to London

Yesterday, & that in Mr. [unclear] did not forget my message to you

I feel so nervous that I can not [unclear] for this party and had to beg of you to [unclear]

Ever your affectionate

Daughter
