My dearest Papa

As it is now late, & the for tonight I shall not see you, will you return from Windsor so much therefore I should to write you a few lines, to say that I am very sorry you have had so much business to do our meeting today - but that I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing you soon after the leave I must say how much I am pleased with your comfortable visit but today I remain ever your affectionate son
 Yours truly & devotedly
 J. Pitt
