Monday

Dear Sir

Pray let me know how Eliza is to day I am very desirous of knowing the various accounts of her - will you send the enclosed to Taylor for a few more copies etc. I did not find but might find some from friends such a many that I could not bring it. Let me know when he will see the same I did not find time to get it as yet. I have not forgot time in General - I have a little note for you but will not put it for fear of delay

I hope the night is the best & I shall come by ^{now} to stay as I had might I have a better understanding of D. Do you think I am too that I said, I said what was right for I fear to think, that I may have been, as a witness, the least to contribute to the, & if I have been really convinced of the truth
