Monday Night
Lambton Hill

My dear Mother

So thousand thanks for the bundle of most affectionate letters which I have just received from you & for its contents which most time me good pleasure

You cannot think what a relief it is to my mind to be at last informed of every circumstance as to your health on which I have concerned ever since I have any news from you & I have to you that I was somewhat forward to write by reason of a delicate & delicate cough & emaciation. The only letter that I have in the subject I am
