Mr Hope is extremely sorry he had not the honor of seeing Miss Moore's Epitaph when he called this morn<sup>g</sup> in Harley Street - Mr A told I rec<sup>d</sup> that the papers or rather Letters that he had mentioned in his Letter were not in existence

I had given my word, that they were to be destroyed immediately after being read, and I have kept my word, for there is no vestige of them remaining - With respect to the other articles which Mr. Hope said he would send back on his return to England he has not got them yet, from the persons who had taken care of them, but Mr. A expects to receive them every day, and he will then return them to Miss M. & in person - Mr. Hope is going out of Town tomorrow to join his Reg<sup>t</sup> for a few days, but he will be back again before the end of the week - and thinks of staying in London four or five days previous to his going abroad for six months.

The day of his arrival in Town
