My dear Brother

I send you the paper you ordered me to write which is the best of my recollections I have put together as far as possible between you & Charlotte not upon matters incidental & talking it over with the Ladies & my Sister in all agrees that what passed in confidence between Charlotte & myself (through) I have written it down & ought not to go out of my own hands as I may be of some use if I can by degrees get her to tell it by herself -

51001

but you may defend upon my entering down every thing that is necessary & keeping it for any further occasion should it be called for —

Yours
Wm. Kelly
