

Mrs Charlotte told Mr Henry that the <sup>Op of</sup> Wales <sup>in her letter</sup> says "if she could be of any use to her Daughters she would return to England but that she believes it more prudent for herself as well as Daughters to remain for the present abroad She sends her Daughters views of all the places she has stoped at & calls them her Drawings but Mrs Charlotte says she knows they are Mr R's drawings & the names of the places are in his hand writing though the Op of Wales has wrote over some of the names in her own hand writing - She said " I am sure the only thing for my Mother is to keep abroad & should it ever come to her being ordered to remain abroad - I should hope there all intercourse between us will entirely cease & that her correspondence with me will be allowed for after what has passed the Prince never can let me see her again or do I can make it myself - I asked her if when she put an end to the correspondence between herself & Cap. in hope of it was from any alarm she had had or from the advice of the Council who told her she must put a stop to it - She said she had heard from authority she could not doubt that the Op of Wales had been impudent enough to talk of her & her father & that decided her to take the advice of a Council & to confess the scrape & fright she was in & the last Publications in the news papers coming out at the same time had saluted her still more & added "I am I see clearly my Mother's object was to bring this Boy forward - When while I employed but as long as the Prince Lewis that should come to of his consequence - so the Prince thinks but I am not so sure of that - When my saying I think the Prince can not be but here for many years under the same roof with the Op - "Afterwards replied "The Op of Wales was seen at Carlton House since she had Black Death & through I was my young I am sure I remember seeing top in Manby & Miss Manby his sister at Carlton House & added for Sir Smith you know was a favorite long before Captain Manby & they also is that Edward's Kent was his child - "I said about Duke

You think that she is too cold "because she is my like I am & has black & ink"
I then enquired why she thought of in Enquiry was the Letter of the Boy" - I am sure of it" and her reply - I asked her why she called the Girl Whorehouse kind "By way of a good joke" - The Queen Tommye was called for & we ended our conversation
