

49982

[1815]

W^m the August
Weymouth.

My dear Father —

As this is one of the only birthdays for many years in which I have not been able to pay my personal respects to your Cousin but recall myself to your remembrance on the return of a day so interesting to the whole country, but particularly so to us, or suffer it to pass without offering you a share of congratulations —

May every blessing of it add to your happiness, & comfort, & that every you could be dignified with the extraordinary success your arms have met with, yet I trust under the May now look forward to still greater blessings than of universal peace throughout Europe —

In my way to this place. I want a night at home when The Bishop proposed we should ^{when} ~~to~~ ^{to} ~~the~~ Dunelm, & a longer visit while the ^{to} ~~the~~ season would permit of an excursion to Stonehouse, & other places worth seeing in this neighbourhood (that I feel inclined to avail myself of his invitation, unless you see any objection to it - I have refrained from any answer till I could have your views - The Bishop proposes starting the latter part of week about the 1st or 2nd, this I have if it is to take place, cannot well be postponed beyond it therefore -

Believe me

Very truly
Yours

Ann
Daughter
~~of the Bishop~~