My dear Mother —

I beg leave to inform you your removal at the end Liverpool forwarded me by yesterday's post
from My Mother —

This is the only one I have had since ever graciously allowed me to write
to her on the death of her Brother —

Will it need with your approbation or not that I should answer this letter? —

It was a matter of sincere concern to me to hear that you had been ill
 nothing but the fear
 of invading it was a moment would have prevented my writing in immediately, but I equally rejoice at your being so happily recovered as to go to London, & since that to leave Town for the country - I trust the change of air for some weeks
 may be of the greatest benefit to you - Allow me to subscribe myself
