Lord Halifax thinks it his Duty to send his Majesty the Two Inclosed Letters he has this Moment received, one from Peter & Theophilus Schirr, Merchants, to Lord Halifax, & the other from Mr Best, Secretary of Baron Beker to Mrs Mills. Lord Halifax took his Majesty's Pleasure to day relative to the unhappy Convict, who is the Soldier who committed the Street Robbery of which his Majesty heard the Particulars on the Recorder's Report on Friday, and which his Majesty heard again to day. Lord Halifax was told that Baron Beker was with his Majesty today, when Lord Halifax came to her Majesty's House, but as he is ignorant of what may have happened since, or how far his Majesty may still be Inclined to save the Life of the unhappy Convict, he begs to receive his

Majesty's Commands, at his Lising, in Case he be pleased to spare the Convict's Life, As he will be on the Road to Tyburn at nine O'clock in the Morning. —

Harman is the Person stiled Hairman in the Recorder's Report, & is one of the Two to be Executed tomorrow. The other is Adams for forging a Sailor's Ticket —

His Majesty will be so good to observe that Mess^r. Schirr's Letter (with the Inclosure from Baron Bohr's Secretary's) is dated This Night 11 O'clock.
