[Nov. 7 1817]

Sir Rich^d. Croft presents his most respectful duty and takes the liberty of informing His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, that he is this instant returned from the heart-rending scene at Claremont.
Sir Rich^d will be most ready to wait upon His Royal Highness, whenever he is honored with His commands, and equally so, to answer any questions, or give every information His Royal Highness may wish for, as far as is in his power.
