Friday Morning.

[7 Nov. 1817]

Dear Brother,

After so many years of <sup>un</sup>interrupted friendship between us and your ever--stant and kind regard towards me I cannot but enter most sincerely into whatever must affect you in your public or private charac-ter: the lamentable and unfortunate death of poor Princess Charlotte strikes at you in every way and enters most deeply into the -most regret I know your good and excellent heart must entertain at the loss of this dear fine young creature: I shall of course attend the Queen to Windsor and the moment I can leave her with propriety I shall have the melancholy satisfaction of visiting you yourself: till then adieu: God bless you and ever believe me,

Dearest Brother,

Your most affectionately and truly
