Carlton House

Nov^r. 10th 1817.

My dear Addenbrooke

Upon the melancholy subject of your Letter, the Prince Regent commands me to request, that you will take a fit moment to acquaint the Prince of Cobourg, that the Vault which is appropriated to receive the Sacred Remains of the Princess Charlotte, is of such dimensions, as to be adequate to the mournful purpose to which which His Serene Highness in His Pious and Affectionate feelings, desires that it should be further destined, and for which The Prince Regent, in the fulness of His Affectionate Sympathy in the Affliction of His Serene Highness, has given the requisite Orders.

I am to request that you will obtain for The Prince Regent, a Lock of the Hair of Princess Charlotte, which His Royal Highness desires to receive by return of the Messenger, if you shall be enabled to transmit it so soon.

(Signed) B. Bloomfield
