Manchester 12th Dec 1787

In consequence of a letter which Lord Kerkeville was kind as to take from the Duke of Sussex to the Royal Highness, the Prince Regent. Lord Kerkeville attended upon the Prince Regent when a conversation ensued in the presence of Sir Benjamin Moorfield which the Duchess was commanded to take to the Duke of Sussex would be repeated to her. By The Duke of Sussex under all these circumstances ~~understanding~~ that the result is a refusal on the part of the Prince Regent to see her declines the interview with the Duchess General from motives of delicacy towards the Royal Brother whose feelings under the present circumstances he does not wish unnecessarily to agitate.

James Frederick
Esq.
