Dear Sir,

Kedron Lodge
November 12th 1817.

Painful as you may be assured the melancholy office must be to Lady Boston she requests you to offer her humble Duty to His Prince Regent, and to express for her the deep concern with which she shall hold herself in readiness to obey His Royal Highness's Commands, and wishes on the very mournful occasion of the ever to be lamented Funeral. I shall not fail to attend to His Royal Highness's Commands with equal Regret, and beg you will believe me to be, Dear Sir, with every Sentiment of Regard, and Feeling, your faithful and obedient humble Servant.

Boston.
