Lord Grantham will have the Preliminary Articles mentioned in the Minute of Cabinet ready for your Majesty's perusal, on your Arrival in Town.

The Cabinet sat eight hours upon the Articles & dispatches which came from Mr. Fitzherbert. Lord Grantham will see Mr. de Rayneval to-morrow morning, & do his utmost to induce him to accept of the Alterations made in his Proposals. The Signature of the American Treaty may perhaps facilitate this.

The Proposal of accepting Guadalupe for Gibraltar, & as Dominica can scarcely be called a part of

The Exchange; if was not unanimously agreed to by the Duke of Richmond & Lord Keppel, with of course lay before Your Majesty their Opinions to it.

3<sup>d</sup> Decr. 1732.
