R. of Chesham
Buckly Square Dec. 1. 1792. S. Hill

Sir

I have obey'd Your Majesty's commands relative to the Lord Chancellor and the Speaker. The answer to the Address shall meet Your Majesty at J^o Jones's - I see very plainly the vast Importance of expediting all the publick Business thro' both Houses, and your Majesty may depend upon my making it my incessant Study, as long as I have the honour to serve your Majesty.

The Chancellor wishes me to be at the House and to attend the Address to St James's. It will be necessary on account of an Idea which the Duke of Richmond an Lord Kepple have taken up of thanking Lord Howe, in consequence of what pass'd yesterday, and of adjourning the House to Monday instead of Fryday for that purpose. The Intention is much disapproved of by your Majesty's servants in the House of Commons.

I have therefore determin'd to send Mr. Arde to Lord Howe, and if your Majesty does not disapprove

I propose to leave it to be decided by his own Judgement.

I have great Satisfaction in acquainting Your Majesty that every thing pass'd perfectly well in the House of Commons.

I have the Honour to be with the highest Respect
