Sir

Brighton
Aug. 14th 1806

Your Royal Highness will I trust pardon me with your usual goodness for thus intruding on your time, but understanding you leave Brighton till October Lady Berkeley & myself wish to go into Gloucestershire till you return to this place should you permit me so to do. having no wish but to testify my faithful duty and attachment to your Royal Highness, allow me, Sir, to express in the name of Lady Berkeley & myself our grateful thanks for the continuance of your condescending kindness to us both and to say that if in your Tour you should think of Gloucestershire, it would be the pride of our lives to receive your Royal Highness at Berkeley Castle when we flatter ourselves Mr Fitzherbert will visit us - not the least of your Royal

18203
Highness's favour do I consider the Regiment being sufficient to attend on your Person, being with every sentiment of respect and duty

your Royal Highness's Obedient Servant
B. Berkeley
