Regency
9.1751

Whereas, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty Fourth Year of Our Reign, to provide for the Administration of the Government, in case the Crown should descend to any of the Children, of Our Son, Frederick, late Prince of Wales, being under the Age of eighteen Years, and for the Care and Guardianship of their Persons, We did, by three Instruments, under Our Royal Sign Manual, nominate, and Add Persons, therein named to the Persons and Offices, by the said Act, appointed to be of the Council of Regency, thereby constituted; Which said three Instruments were made revocable, and Seal'd up in such manner, and lodged and deposited, in the hands of such Persons, as by the said Act are directed; — Now, We do, by these Presents, and by two other Instruments, of the same Tenor and Date, herewith, under our Royal Sign Manual, revoke, and make void, the said three Instruments, so formerly executed by Us; and the Nomination thereby made, as aforesaid. And further, in pursuance of the said Act, We do by these Instruments, and by the said two other Instruments of the same Tenor and Date, herewith nominate and Add to the Persons and Officers, by the said Act appointed to be of the said Council of Regency, the Persons following, being natural born Subjects of Our Realm of Great Britain viz.

And We do hereby, and by the two other Instruments last mentioned, Appoint the said Persons, herein before-named, to be Members of the said Council of Regency according to the true Intent of the said Act, Reserving to Ourselves full Power and Authority, to revoke these Inventions, and the said two other Instruments, last-mentioned, at Our Will and Pleasure.
Given at Our Court of the Day of in the Year 17 and in the of Our Reign
