Herod. Princess of Württemberg

51416-7

Sir

Allow me to return you my most grateful thanks for the reception we have met with here all ranks have united to shew their Loyalty to your Majesty and attention to us In all the places we came through the Peasants enquired which was their Kings Daughter and then came up and spoke to me entreating that I would persuade your Majesty to come amongst them: the attachment these good people shew to your Family made up to me for the very bad roads we met with. I am quite surprised at the manner in which they contrive to cultivate this sandy part of the Country as there is a great deal of Corn and large Plantations in that obnoxious part of the Country it improves as one approaches Hannover.

It has been so contrived that we have had all the first people to dine with us yesterday Your Majesty's Birthday was kept and I am convinced that you would yourself be pleased could you once see the Putter Seal. We are all very much oblig'd to Count Philoranssch for his unrewarded attention indeed were I to begin I should not know when to stop if I was to mention all those that have been attentive and polite to us. Adolphus is all kindness he is very much improved in his Understanding and Conversation and has been very good-natured and affectionate to me.

The Prince wished very much to write to your Majesty to return his thanks and to send you a letter from the Duke: but I took the liberty to assure him that as you are not fond of writing my presenting his humble Duty and writing would do for us both.

I will not take up more of your Majesty's time than to assure you that I am with the greatest respect

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful

Daughter and Subject

Charlotte Augusta Matilda
