Herod. Princess of Württemberg

51420-1

Sir

I take the first opportunity to acquaint Your Majesty of my arrival at Stuttgart on the 24th. on the 23^d the Prince met me at Heilbron with his two Sons who are so like my Brothers that I was both pleased and overcome with our meeting. The next day at Lewisbourg Prince Catherine met us she is really very handsome being the very image of her Father.
In the Evening about five o Clock I came to the Palace and was presented to the Duke and Duchess who received me in the kindest and most affectionate manner. Every possible Compliment has been paid to me from the moment I came into the Duchy at my first entry there was a Triumphant Arch under which I was Complaizent by Baron Taubernheim who is the President of the Regency in the Dukes name and every place I came through was Crowded with people.

On the Sunday there was a great Dinner at Court. the Duke had God save the King performed both by Vocal and Instrumental Music and Your Majesty's health was drunk with a Royal Salute. I own that I required all the Strength in my power not to burst into
