My dear Brother

Though I troubled you with a letter by Count Thoeull I cannot neglect at the approach of dear little Charlottes Birthday to send you a few lines to Congratulate you on a day which absent or present I am too much attached to you and interested in every thing which can contribute to your happiness not to think of with pleasure. I trust that dear Child will always be a comfort to you: and I look forwards with pleasure to the time that you will reap the advantages of the trouble you are at to give her a good Education. I fervently wish that she may ever be a blessing to you and that every additional Year may bring forth in her new perfections which will delight her Fathers Heart.

We are still quite unsettled the Womankind think that they will not get our new habitation ready these few days and from next Sunday we are to live between our dear home and the Castle which is very inconvenient. As for me I have no prospect of being quiet till we go to Ludwigsbourg as I am to change my Apartment a second time when once in the Castle as that cannot be ready for me these six Weeks; and not to have the one the Duke wishes me to remain in till my return to Stuttgart next Winter.

The Duke begs that I will present his respects to you.

Adieu my dear Brother and be convinced of the sincerity and affection of Your most affectionate Sister and attached Friend
