My dearest Brother

Could I have followed my Inclination I should long before this have expressed my gratitude for the affectionate Letter you were so kind as to send me by Count Uchull, and though I feel myself very undeserving of all the flattering things you so kindly say: my Heart is deeply impressed with this fresh proof of your affection, be convinced dear Brother of the sincere love and friendship I have for you which will last as long as I exist. - I am delighted with the accounts I hear of dear little Charlotte all the Letters I receive from home are full of her praises. I trust that she will sensibly be a great Comfort to You and I now look forwards with great anxiety to the moment that I shall be equally blessed - I hope for the future that you will receive all my letters safely as Mr Abuthnot has put me in the way of sending those I write to the Secretary of States Office by which means I fear you will find me rather troublesome when I am once out of my Confinement As I shall always be anxious to seize every opportunity to recall myself to you The moment my Month is up we are to settle in the Country which I look forwards to with great pleasure as the situation of Ludewigsbourog is delightful I hope that you will have fine Weather during Easter Week as it is your usual time of being a little in the Country But Weather here I think very unwholesome as I never saw any thing so changeable this Morning it was so unpleasant nobody could stir and this Evening I have been sitting out till past six o'clock in a little Garden which is before my Rooms. - I think my dear Brother you would be delighted with the Palace here the English that have seen it think it equals Carlton House - The Gentleman who will have the honour to give you this Letter is Monsieur de Peder one of the Dukes Aid de Campo and Gentilshommes de la Chambre who is to bring the account of my being brought of Bed. - Allow me to return you thanks for the kindness you shewed Count Wessell who is quite enthusiastic about England and the goodness he met with - I will now take up no more of your time than to beg you will be convinced of the sincere regard and affection with which I remain
