Sir

I had intended writing to Your Majesty to day to assure you that I continue gaining ground. I have been carried into the garden and the Air has done me good which makes me very anxious for Tuesday as I shall then remove to Loudewigsbourg. But I have a double reason as I have this instant received a Letter from Adolphus which has made me very happy, as he acquaints me that Thanks God Your Majesty has been spared the anxiety of hearing the danger I have been in till the second account brought the news of my Recovery. In all my distress for the loss of my Child my mind was much taken up with the thoughts of what the uncertainty of my fate might make You suffer. I feel so thankful to God for this that I am much easier and feel more comforted than I have done since my misfortune, as I am by this still more than ever convinced that God will always stand by Your Majesty.

The Duke begs that I will present his humble Duty to Your Majesty he is very much taken up with making a large English Garden of which I shall attempt to give You a description as soon as I shall be strong enough to walk at that distance from the House. - Our Weather is very warm but most Evenings we have Thunder Storms which prevent my going out as much as the Physicians wish.

If the Wind is fair Your Majesty will receive this on the fourth of June

I hope that you are too well conversant of my respect and sincere attachment for me to need repeating to you how fervently I entreat the Almighty to allow Your Majesty long to be a blessing to Your People, and to Your Children, who all feel how necessary Your life is to the universal good and happiness

I will now take up no more of Your Majesty's Service than to entreat
You to be convinced of the respect with which I have the honour to be
