Sir

I trust that Your Majesty will receive this on the 4th of June allow me to express to You the warm wishes I make that you may long be allowed to continue a Blessing to us all, and may continue to enjoy that health so necessary to your happiness. I pray the Almighty that he may through many succeeding Years continue to bless your undertakings as he has done of late and that Your Majesty may be blest with the satisfaction of knowing that You have been his chosen instrument to reestablish Religion and regularity in the World.

I cannot pass over in silence this Day on whose return I congratulate Your Majesty. God grant that many many Years we may enjoy the happiness of celebrating two days which must be dear not only to Your Children but to all those who are blest with Your protection.

As in a few days I shall have the honour of writing Your Majesty a long Letter. I shall now only add the Duke's most humble
